

BOD MEMBERS BIO

IGLI SULAJ

Igli Sulaj is the Chief Business Officer at the American Bank of Investments, with over 20 years of experience in the financial sector, investments, and executive management. In this role, he leads business development, oversees lending processes, and contributes to the institution's strategic direction.

His career is marked by sustained engagement in leadership roles and progressively expanding responsibilities. Within the bank, he has held the positions of Executive Director and Director of the Investments and Special Projects Division, focusing on financial analysis, investment structuring, and project development. Simultaneously, he has served for an extended period as Vice President for Investments at NCH Advisors and as an advisor to the CEO of one of NCH Capital's portfolio companies.

Earlier in his career, he worked for nearly seven years as a Manager in Corporate Finance at KPMG in Albania and the Balkans.

He holds an MBA from Warwick Business School and a BBA in Finance from Loyola University Chicago, combining strong technical expertise with extensive leadership and investment experience.

Media contacts:

Press Office: mp@abi.al